

Abrasive Wheels Awareness

Accreditation	Sorted Training In-House
Course Duration	Half Day
Certificate valid for	3 Years
Grant Available	Subject to CITB eligibility

Who should attend?

This Abrasive Wheels Awareness Training Course is ideal for those who operate, supervise, or manage the use of cut off saws, angle grinders, bench top cut off saws and bench grinders.

Course Information

Course Content

The aim of this course is to provide learners with the correct level of knowledge to use and maintain abrasive wheel equipment safely.

- Health and safety legislation overview
- Hazards and risk control measures associated with abrasive wheels
- PPE
- Types of abrasive wheel machines and their safe use
- Resin & vitrified bonded abrasive wheel selection, marking, identification and inspection
- Correct use, setting, adjustment and inspection of flanges, guards and accessories
- Pre-use machine safety checks
- How to mount abrasive wheels on various equipment including a hand angle grinder, saws and bench
- Bench grinder familiarisation
- Set up and safe working of applying an abrasive wheel to a grinder
- Practical safe set up (no love cutting or grinding)

Learner Numbers

The maximum number of learners for this course is 10.

Assessment

Learners' knowledge is assessed through a short theory test at the end of the course. The course is pass / fail.

Certification

Those who successfully complete the course will receive a Sorted Training certificate valid for 3 years.

CITB Grant Levy

Available – Subject to CITB eligibility

