

Fire Marshal / Warden

Accreditation	Sorted Training In-House
Course Duration	Half Day
Certificate valid for	3 Years
Grant Available	No

Who should attend?

This course is designed and aimed towards those who are responsible for overseeing fire safety or who are designated fire marshals within their workplace.

Course Information

Course Content

Learners will develop their knowledge and skills in fire safety, to include:

- Fire awareness in the workplace
- Fire extinguishers in buildings and workplaces
- Classes and types of fire
- Safety tips when using fire extinguishers
- Fire hazards and risks in the workplace
- Effective fire drills
- Fire alarms/smoke alarms and fixed installations
- Assembly points and coordination
- Fire evacuation – general principles and safety advice and plans
- Fire risk assessment overview
- Summary of daily, weekly, and monthly Warden checks

Learner Numbers

The maximum number of learners for this course is 10.

Assessment

Learners will be assessed through a short multiple choice question paper at the end of the course. This course is pass/fail.

Certification

Those who successfully complete the course will receive a Sorted Training Fire Warden/Marshal digital certificate valid for 3 years.

CITB Grant Levy

Not Available

